

Legal Research Intern

Geraldine Steele

Professional summary

Highly motivated, detail-oriented graduate student pursuing a position as a Legal Research Intern to apply strong analytical and scientific skills in a real-world setting. Committed to using academic knowledge and practical experience to support legal research initiatives and contribute effectively to a team.

Experience

Research Assistant

January 2023 - May 2023

Widener University Delaware / Law School, Professor John Adams

- Assisted with research on constitutional law issues, including the preparation of research summaries and bibliographies.
- Analyzed and synthesized legal articles and case law for academic publications.
- Collaborated with Professor Adams on developing lecture materials and case studies.

References

Available upon request.

Professional Affiliations

American Bar Association (ABA)

2022 - Now

Member, Student Division

Certifications

Legal Research and Writing Certificate

Widener University Delaware Law School, Issued: June 2023

Introduction to Legal Research and Westlaw

Westlaw Academy, Issued: December 2022

Certificate in Legal Research Methodologies

American Bar Association (ABA), Issued: August 2022

(555) 789-0123

geraldine.steele@email.com

United States, Newark, DE

Education

Juris Doctor Candidate

2022 - Now

Widener University Delaware Law School

United States, Wilmington, DE

- Coursework: Advanced Legal Research, Legal Writing, Constitutional Law, Civil Procedure
- GPA: 3.7/4.0
- Honors: Dean's List (2023, 2024)

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science

2018 - 2022

University of Delaware

United States, Newark, DE

- Magna Cum Laude
- Dean's List (2019-2022)
- Coursework: Political Theory, Public Policy, International Relations

Skills

Legal research methodologies

Drafting legal memoranda

Westlaw, LexisNexis, and other legal research tools

Ability to analyze and interpret legal documents

Reviewing and summarizing legal materials.

