

Randall McCord

Forensic Psychologist

Contact info

- 563 843-0549
- randall-mccord@email.com
- Davenport, IA

Education

- Iowa State University 2019 - 2021
MS in Forensic Psychology, Iowa City, IA
- Drake University 2015 - 2019
BS in Psychology, Den Moines, IA

Skills

Psychological Assessment
Report Writing
Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (CBT)
Crisis Intervention
Psychotherapy
Mental Health Diagnosis
Multicultural Sensitivity
Criminal Profiling
Data Analysis
Risk Assessment
Courtroom Testimony
Case Management
Research Analysis

Professional summary

Detail-oriented Forensic Psychologist with 5 years of experience applying psychological principles within legal contexts. Skilled in criminal profiling, psychological assessments, and case consultations. Adept at working with law enforcement and legal professionals to contribute to the fair administration of justice.

Experience

- Forensic Psychologist June 2021 - Now
Devenport Police Department, Davenport, IA
 - Assist in criminal investigations by providing detailed profiles and behavioral analysis based on psychological theories and evidence.
 - Conduct comprehensive psychological assessments of suspects and victims to determine mental states, competency, and risk factors.
 - Collaborate with detectives and attorneys to develop case strategies.
- Intern Forensic Psychologist May 2019 - August 2019
Iowa State Department of Corrections, Des Moines, IA
 - Conducted risk evaluations for inmates and parole candidates, assessing potential threats to public safety.
 - Assisted in developing rehabilitation programs tailored to offenders with mental health issues, focusing on reducing recidivism.